Situation Overview

Representing the Government of the People's Republic of China, Chinese Ambassador, Chen Song, officially delivered consignment of earthquake relief aid to Deputy Prime Minister and Minister for Home Affairs Narayan Kaji Shrestha. The aid arrived on two Chinese military airplanes at the Pokhara International Airport on Wednesday morning which contains 4,600 blankets and 600 tents.

The Chinese government has provided additional aid supplies worth NPR. 100 million, which arrived in Kathmandu on Wednesday via the Kerung Pass. The 23 truckloads of materials include 2,300 tents, 2,000 blankets, 700 tarpaulins, and 10,500 mosquito repellents. The materials will immediately be sent to the affected areas.

On 9 November 2023 a meeting was held at the Ministry of Finance with development partner countries and agencies in Nepal regarding the state of damage and loss caused by the Jajarkot earthquake and the future direction of reconstruction. In the meeting, the executive chief of NDRRMA, Mr. Anil Pokhrel, presented a detailed report on the damage and loss caused by the earthquake so far, as well as the resources needed for reconstruction.
