NEWS & UPDATES

1. The reconstruction process of the damaged houses has resumed after the festival season.
2. Local media reports have stated the dissatisfaction of beneficiaries towards the negligible support provided by field engineers.
3. Shortages of reconstruction materials have been reported across the district except in district headquarters.
4. Demand for trained masons is quite high in the district. Local media have reported wide-spread usage of untrained masons in the reconstruction process due to the scarcity of trained masons. Approximately 200 houses have been constructed in the district.
