Housing Typology Report

Ward 2, Likhu Rural municipality, Okhaldhunga: Stone masonry in mud mortar(SMM) and concrete horizontal bands are the construction features of the structure. The House owner Mr. Hem Bahadur Khadka has only received first tranche because of having the noncompliance issues regarding the room size. This house has been constructed with room size of 15*16 sqft which is much more in size that has enlisted in the NBC. The technical person working on this ward recommended him to correct the noncompliance room size but he hesitate to correct.

Ward 2, Likhu Rural municipality, Okhaldhunga: The house is constructed with Stone masonry in mud mortar(SMM) and wooden horizontal bands. House owner Mr. Kedar BK has received all tranche provided from GON. The total cost of construction up to this level is 4.5 lakhs said Mr. BK and satisfied with technical support and grant provided from government.

Ward 3, Likhu Rural municipality, Okhaldhunga: Bam Bahgadur Bogati house owner has received all the tranche provided from GON. Stone masonry in mud mortar and concrete bands used to construct the house. Two room houses is well finished and ready to use. The total construction cost is nearly 5 lakhs said Mr. Bogati.

Ward 3, Likhu Rural municipality, Okhaldhunga: Lok Bahadur Bogati is the house owner. The structure has been constructed in stone masonry in mud mortar providing concrete horizontal bands. The house owner has received the third tranche and waiting for the completion certificate. The scarcity of water to construct the house is the main problem said Bogati.

Challenges and Way Forward

Challenge	Way Forward
Lack of trained mason for retrofitting for private house repair.	Training for mason regarding the retrofitting is needed
Technical person is confusing to give the construction methodologies	Need of Tot training to the newly appointed technical person.
To conduct the palika level meeting we face more challenge to gather the official person.	If we manage some allowance its helps us to call up them for Palika Level coordination meeting.
