Discussion: (Items/Knowledge Shared)

HRRP Bhaktapur District Coordination Team along with National HRRP team conducted Key Informant Interview (KII) with few key officials of DLPIU GMALI Bhaktapur office. The team consulted with Mr. Vivek Raj Gautam, M & E Specialist, Mr. Bhoj Raj Bhatt, MIS Specialist and Ms. Sanita Mastari, Public Finance Management Specialist, who are the Specialist teams of Earthquake Housing and Recovery Project (EHRP) in DLPIU GMALI Office, Bhaktapur. The purpose of organizing a brief interaction with the key officials of EHRP/GMALi Bhaktapur was take inputs/insights on how the GMALI office has been dealing & addressing the issues of earthquake affected beneficiaries that have underwent through Guthi land issues. The interaction were resulted out due to related to the qualitative video case study collection conducted at Ward no 7, Bageshwori, Changunarayan Municipality.

The EHRP team were briefed about the qualitative video case study visit done at Ward no 7, Bageshwori, Changunarayan Municipality. The team revealed that the beneficiaries who had been living on Guthi land since many decades. The mentioned beneficiaries in Ward no 7 were struggling with Guthi land issues and donot own any written legal document that indicates about their ownership over the land. Most of the beneficiaries have received 1st tranche from NRA/GON, however very less (only handful) have forwarded reconstruction of their houses. Some beneficiaries have rebuild the house in nearby Guthi land and but they still continued to live in the quake damaged house as they donot have any alternatives of their shelter. Guthi land users had been paying amount (equivalent to certain portion of grains cultivated from the land) to the Guthi owners.

The EHRP team suggested that - Beneficiaries need to follow taking approvals from Guthi owners and Guthi Corporation with an authorized document that reads that the Guthi owner is approved to rebuild house on Guthi land that they had been habituating since many decades. The approval letters need to be submitted to Municipality office who will after verification conducts documentation process to give building permit to the beneficiaries.

Decisions Made: (What, Why, Impacts)

The EHRP Team and M & E Specialist assured that GMALI will look into guthi land issues and will support the beneficiaries and ward office in addressing the issues.
