Ward level meeting held on 11 Feb 2020 at Siddhalekh rural municipality ward no 6 to discuss about reconstruction, retrofitting status in ward and to find out reason behind non construction of house in ward .

- ❖ There were 13 beneficiaries of retrofitting in ward 6 of siddhalekh RM. Ward informed that 6 of them have already started procedure to convert in RCB, 1 have retrofit the house in support of Build change, 3 of them are not in condition to start new DPC neither retrofit their house, 3 of them were not identified during ward engineer's visit to field. In ward 6, 2 beneficiary were benefitted from peoples housing program(Janta Awas karyakram) and they haven't been provided any grant from NRA.
- ❖ It was found that 29 RCB beneficiary haven't started their construction after receiving 1st tranche of 50,000. The main reason behind non construction was beneficiary staying abroad and Kathmandu, single women with weak economic condition.
- ❖ Beneficiary named Krishna prasad thapaliya located at Siddhalekh-6, Fistar filed a case to National Human right commission-Lalitpur on Ashad 27 about not getting reconstruction tranche of 3 lakh even after his house totally affected by 2072 earthquake. On our visit to Mr. Thapaliya house he told us that he wasn't being listed on reconstruction beneficiary even after grievance registration too . So, a person from his village told him that if he filed a case to National human right commission with a reason that he hasn't got a tranche amount of reconstruction even after his house affected by earthquake, then he will be provided the tranche amount of worth Rs 3laks. He was living in his old one storey three roomed Concrete block house which was constructed before 2072 earthquake.
